3. Required characteristics of a TNC driver organization (Bus. & Prof. Code § 7470.2(k))

The applicant must demonstrate that it meets all six of the following statutory characteristics of a TNC Driver Organization:

(1) The organization has engaged in advocacy for drivers who transport passengers in California, or is affiliated with an organization that has engaged in advocacy for drivers who transport passengers in California, for a minimum of five years. (2) The organization has experience, or is affiliated with an organization that has experience, in negotiating collective bargaining agreements and representing workers under those agreements, including the representation of workers in filing unfair labor practice charges and in grievance proceedings. (3) The organization has as one of its main purposes the representation of workers in their labor relations. (4) The organization's bylaws or other internal governing documents will give TNC drivers the right to be members of the organization and to participate in the democratic control of the organization if the bargaining unit chooses to be represented by the organization. (5) The organization is not sponsored by, dominated by, or controlled by a transportation network company. (6) The organization is not a company union.

In the space below, describe in a clear and concise written statement how the applicant organization satisfies each of these six characteristics (attach any additional documents as needed).
